It is essential that:

- the Insured checks that each of the Insured Sections and the Schedule are correct.
- the Insured complies with its duties under each Section and under the insurance as a whole.
- This Policy should be kept in a safe place as the Insured may need to refer to it if the Insured has to make a claim. It is recommended that the Insured retains details of its Employers' Liability policy/certificates for at least 40 years.

The Insured has a duty at inception and renewal of this Policy to make a fair presentation of and a continuing duty throughout the Period of Insurance to disclose all facts that are material to the underwriters including those relating to any claim. If the Insured has any doubt as to whether or not a fact is material the Insured should immediately disclose it to its insurance intermediary.

The Insured must pay all premiums due together with all taxes due on the premiums

In all communications the Policy number specified in the Schedule should be quoted and be made in the first instance via the Insured's insurance intermediary.

Complaints

Sections A and B:

How to Complain

If the Insured is dissatisfied with any aspect of the handling of their insurance, the Insurer would ask the Insured in the first instance to contact the insurance agent or intermediary from whom they purchased their Policy. If the Insured remains unhappy and feels the matter has not been resolved to their satisfaction, they may refer a complaint to the Insurer at any time in one of the following formats:

- By telephone: +44 (0)20 3427 3111
- By email: complaints@corin.com
- In writing at: Managing Director, Corin Underwriting Ltd, 148 Leadenhall Street, London, EC3V 4QT

How the Insurer will handle the Insured's Complaint

Step 1: The Insurer will try to resolve the Insured's complaint immediately:
The Insurer will look into the Insured's complaint and will aim to resolve their concern immediately.

- Step 2: Within 5 working days of receiving the Insured's complaint:
If the Insurer is unable to resolve the matter immediately, the Insurer will send the Insured an acknowledgement letter within 5 working days. The letter will provide the contact details of the person who will be supporting the Insured throughout their complaint.
- Step 3: Within 8 weeks of receiving the Insured's complaint:
The Insurer will endeavour to provide the Insured with a final response explaining the outcome of the Insurer's investigation and the next steps, or a letter confirming when the Insurer anticipates they will have concluded their investigation.
- Step 4: Refer the Insured's complaint to the Financial Services Ombudsman Service (FSO):
If after making a complaint the Insured remains unhappy and feels the matter has not been resolved to their satisfaction, they may be able to refer their complaint to the FSO Service. The Insured can contact them in one of the following ways:
By telephone: +353 (0) 1 6620899
By email at: enquiries@financialombudsman.ie
In writing at: Financial Service Ombudsman
3rd Floor, Lincoln House
Lincoln Place
Dublin 2

Not all complainants may refer complaints to the FSO, but, for its part, the Insurer will treat all complainants equally and fairly.

The FSO may not be able to consider a complaint if the Insured;

- has not provided the Insurer with an opportunity to resolve it
- is a limited company with an annual turnover of more than €3 million

Following this complaint procedure does not affect the Insured's right to take legal action.

Section C:

ARAG is committed to providing a first class service at all times. However, if a complaint arises, this should be addressed to ARAG's Customer Relations Department who will arrange to have it reviewed at the appropriate level. They can be reached in the following ways:

Telephone: +44 117 917 1561 (hours of operation are 9am-5pm, Mondays to Fridays excluding bank holidays. For our mutual protection and training purposes, calls may be recorded).

E-mail: customerrelations@arag.co.uk

Write to: ARAG plc, Whiteladies Road, Clifton, Bristol, BS8 1NN.

If ARAG are not able to resolve the complaint to the Insured's satisfaction then the Insured can refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS) provided that it falls within their jurisdiction. The FOS can normally deal with complaints from small business with annual turnover of less than €2 million. They can be contacted at:

Telephone: +44 800 023 4567 or +44 300 123 9123

E-mail at: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

Write to: Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, Harbour Exchange Square, London, E14 9SR.

The FOS is an independent service in the UK for settling disputes between consumers and businesses providing financial services. The Insured can find more information on the Financial Ombudsman Service at www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk
The FOS's decision is binding upon the Insurer, but the Insured is free to reject it without affecting the Insured's legal rights.

For all Sections following these complaints procedures does not affect the Insured's rights to take legal action.

Compensation

The Insurer contributes to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).

The Insured may be entitled to compensation from the FSCS if the Insurer is unable to meet its liabilities. For compulsory insurance the Insured may be entitled to compensation up to 100% of the claim.

For all other types of insurance the Insured may be entitled to compensation of up to £2,000 for the first part of the claim and 90% of the remainder of the claim.

Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS and their website at www.fscs.org.uk

The Policy and the information disclosed by the Insured

In deciding to accept this Policy and in setting the terms and premium, the Insurer has relied on the information provided by the Insured's insurance intermediary on the Insured's behalf. The Insured must take care when answering any questions being asked ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If the Insurer establishes that the Insured deliberately or recklessly provided the Insurer with false or misleading information the Insurer will treat the Policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. The Insurer may not return premium already paid by the Insured in this situation.

If the Insurer establishes that the Insured provided the Insurer with false, incomplete or misleading information, it can adversely affect the Policy and any claim.

For example:

- (a) where the Insurer could have accepted the risk and offered the Insured a Policy but the Insurer would have charged a higher premium, the Insurer may only pay a percentage of any claim that the Insured makes under the Policy. The Insurer would do this by considering the premium the Insurer actually charges as a percentage of the higher premium the Insurer would have charged and then paying the Insured the same percentage of any claim.

So, as an example: if the premium the Insurer actually charged was €250 and the higher premium the Insurer would have charged was €1,000, then the premium the Insurer actually charged represents 25% of the higher premium the Insurer would have charged and the Insurer shall only pay 25% of any claim.

- (b) the Insurer may treat this Policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to the Insured's insurance intermediary. The Insurer will only do this if the false, incomplete or misleading information means that the Insurer provided the Insured with insurance cover when the Insurer would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented.
- (c) if the Insurer would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, the Insurer may amend the Policy to include these terms. The Insurer may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made.
- (d) The Insurer may cancel the Policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions.

The Insurer will write to the Insured if the Insurer:

- (i) intends to treat the Policy as if it never existed; or
- (ii) amend the terms of the Policy; or
- (iii) reduce the Insured's claim in accordance with the above.

If the Insured becomes aware that information it has given the Insurer is inaccurate or incomplete or if the information changes, the Insured must immediately disclose it to its insurance intermediary.

Observance of Policy Terms and Suspension of Cover

Every condition stated as a precedent condition that applies to this Policy (whether to one or more Sections or the Policy as a whole) shall apply and continue to be in force during the whole currency of this Policy.

The Insurer will have no liability under this Policy in respect of any loss occurring or attributable to something happening during a period of non-compliance with a condition precedent and cover will be suspended for the period from the date of the breach until the breach has been remedied unless the Insured can prove that the breach of the condition precedent could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.

The Insured's right to cancel

In the first year of this insurance the Insured has the right to cancel the insurance Policy within 14 days of receiving the Policy documentation and receive a full refund of any premium paid, provided that there have been no claims either paid, reported or outstanding. For the purposes of this cancellation clause, it will be deemed that the Insured will have received the Policy document upon the day following the date it was posted to the Insured by first class post or was supplied to the Insured electronically or the Insured was supplied with the means by which the Insured could access the Policy electronically.

If the Insured does cancel this insurance within the initial 14 day period, then no cover will have been in place from the date of inception, as specified in the Schedule, and no liability whatsoever shall attach to the Insurer in respect of the Policy.

If the Insured does not exercise its right of cancellation within the initial 14 day period, this insurance Policy will automatically come into force from the inception date specified in the Schedule. The Insured will remain liable to pay the full annual premium. Following the expiry of the initial 14 day period, this insurance Policy may be cancelled at any time at the Insured's written request. The Insurer reserves the right not to allow a return of premium.

To exercise its right to cancel, the Insured should contact its insurance intermediary.

The law that governs the interpretation of this Policy

All disputes concerning the interpretation of this Policy are understood and agreed by both the Insured and the Insurer to be subject to Irish Law. Each party agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the Republic of Ireland and to comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction. All matters arising hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court.

If that opinion conflicts with advice obtained by ARAG, then the Insurer will pay for a final opinion which shall be binding on the Insured Individual and on the Insurer. This does not affect the Insured Individual's right under Condition 6 below.
